

Engineers - Leadership Opportunities in LSM Industry

The Organization: Our client is a major player in the Large-Scale Manufacturing (LSM) sector in Pakistan. It promotes and maintains the highest standards of engineering excellence with an emphasis on efficiency and stringent quality regimen. Market competitive compensation and enabling environment. Currently, the company has opportunities for professionals with experience and background in LSM engineering and offers the following opportunities below.

Senior Manager Corporate Communications, PR & Gov't Relations, LAHORE

Reporting to the CEO, the candidate will be responsible for fully integrated communications agenda to build, and promote the client's reputation and brand image across Pakistan. The role creates, integrates and executes communications programmes to support the division's business objectives in engaging with internal and external stakeholders.

Experience: At least 5 – 10 years of PR and communication experience along with strong video/digital communication experience. The successful candidate should have the following competencies: media relations strategy, corporate transformation communication strategy, spokesman-ship, stakeholder management, event organization, project management skills, interpersonal, multitasking, organizational and research skills. The successful candidate will have an excellent command of the English Language, knowledge of Arabic and other languages would be an additional asset.

Education: Bachelor's or Master's degree in Marketing, Communications, Journalism or relevant field

Compensation: Starting at PKR 300,000 per month + Bonus + Perks & Benefits.

Head of Production Planning & Material Control, LAHORE

The role will be responsible for planning & execution of imported parts ordering, material requirement planning with close coordination of daily and monthly production plans and sales target. This role is also responsible for custom clearance, inbound logistics and shipment monitoring. This position reports to the CEO and has one direct report.

Experience: At least 10 – 12 years of experience in high-paced/highly competitive environment. Experience of working in a similar senior capacity would be preferred. Ability to analyze complex information and data, translating these findings into actionable deliverables, strategies, targets, messages, and presentations.

Education: The ideal candidate will hold a Master's degree. Candidates with an Engineering background would be preferred.

Compensation: Starting at PKR 0.5 million per month + Bonus + Perks & Benefits

To Apply

To apply, please send your CV marked (POSITION TITLE) to execsearch1@aasaconsulting.com

Engineers -Leadership Opportunities in LSM Industry

The Organization: Our client is a major player in the Large-Scale Manufacturing (LSM) sector in Pakistan. It promotes and maintains the highest standards of engineering excellence with an emphasis on efficiency and stringent quality regiment. Market competitive compensation and enabling environment. Currently, the company has opportunities for professionals with experience and background in LSM engineering and offers the following opportunities below.

General Manager Procurement, LAHORE

Reporting to the CEO, the successful candidate will be responsible for efficient and speedy turnaround of ongoing management of purchasing strategy and activity, as well as, ensuring optimal supplier performance and price. Develop and implement a strategy and processes to ensure the function is operating in line with the objectives of the business to add value, mitigate supply chain risk and deliver cost savings. The incumbent will lead a team of 30 employees and will have 4 direct reports and a budget of PKR 10 billion to manage.

Experience: At least 15+ years of Supply Chain Management preferably in the Manufacturing sector with focus on strong leadership role, pricing negotiation, technical costing, first-hand complex vendor management and demonstrable experience of logistics administration across multiple disciplines.

Education: The ideal candidate will hold a Master's degree.

Compensation: Range PKR 1.0 million to 2.0 million per month + Bonus + Perks & Benefits.

Deputy General Manager Product Engineering & Planning, LAHORE

This role is responsible for end-to-end management of product planning and the development process. The incumbent will lead the Product Development Team from concept phase to the post-launch analysis phase. Responsible for product development, localization and improvement of parts, up-gradation of plant/asset, business and financial planning and strategic management. The position reports to the CEO, and leads a team of 10 members with 05 direct reports, and has responsibility of a budget of PKR 2 billion.

Experience: A minimum of 10 - 12 years' experience in automotive industry in a similar role of parts development ideally in forging / casting category. Must have demonstrable analytical & leadership skills to manage & motivate a young team. Excellent hands-on engineering skills. Ability to lead a team and be able to work as an individual.

Education: Bachelor's in Engineering (Mechanical/ Industrial/Electrical) from reputed Engineering University

Compensation: Starting from PKR 0.5 million per month + Bonus + Perks & Benefits.

To Apply

Email your CV marked (POSITION TITLE) to execsearch1@aasaconsulting.com